Biography

Evangelist Jerry Sivnksty and his wife, Sharon, make their home in Starr, South Carolina. They have been in Evangelism since 1970 and travel extensively through the year in Revival meetings.

Before his conversion, Evangelist Jerry Sivnksty was reared in a Roman Catholic home. He was saved as a teenager in Fairmont, West Virginia. His wife, Sharon, was saved in a Revival meeting when she was nine years old in Endicott, New York.

Evangelist and Mrs. Sivnksty are both graduates of Bob Jones University. During his senior year at BJU, he started an independent Baptist Church in Anderson, South Carolina. While he was in graduate school, he was the leader of an official BJU ensemble that toured the Midwest.

He is the author of a memorization program entitled, "The Two-Edged Sword Memory Plan." He has also written a track, "The Most Important Thing in Life is...", which has been used nationwide and on many foreign fields.

In 1980, Maranatha Baptist Bible College in Watertown, Wisconsin conferred upon his ministry the honorary doctorate degree of divinity. In 1987 Bob Jones University conferred upon his ministry an honorary doctor of humanities degree.

The Sivnksty's have four grown children, Todd, Brent, Scott, and Jennifer, who are all involved in Christian ministries.
