Amy Herbster traveled with her husband Mark in the ministry of Itinerant evangelism for seventeen years, participating in music and children's ministries, speaking for various ladies' events, and homeschooling their four girls. Their summers were filled with ministry at the Wilds Camp, where Mark assisted at junior camp and Amy was a nurse.

From 2018-2023, Mark and Amy lived in Watertown, where Mark served in the Bible Department of Maranatha Baptist University. They recently moved to Taylors, SC, for Mark to join the pastoral team at Faith Baptist Church. Mark and Amy have two married daughters and two daughters, ages 14 and 15 still living at home.

"Trusting the Author"

Life is a journey, a winding path filled with highs and lows, twists and turns. But amidst it all, there's one constant: the guiding hand of the Author of our faith, Jesus Christ. Trusting in God brings stability amid uncertainty, leading to peace beyond comprehension. Through ups and downs, each season of life serves a purpose in God's grand design, revealing His faithfulness. Join us in embracing this journey of faith, knowing that with God, every season is an opportunity for growth, grace, and glorious transformation!
